

New York: STATEMENT FROM JEFF SAUNDERS FOUNDER, LAST STORE ON MAIN STREET COALITION

"Governor Cuomo's statement today that he continues to oppose Wine in Grocery Stores demonstrates once again that he is a champion of small businesses. The Governor knows that this dangerous idea would kill thousands of jobs by putting Mom-and-Pop shops across upstate New York out of business, while increasing underage drinking in communities across New York by putting high-alcohol content wine in every deli, minimart, gas station, bodega and corner store that now sells beer.

"We appreciate Governor Cuomo's support for our stores, and pledge to work with him in the upcoming legislative session to push back against the Big Box stores as they unleash their next Big Money campaign to destroy our businesses."
